Date: 1. 7. 2021

On the basis of Article 24 of the Rules on subsidised student accommodation (Official Gazette of the Republic of Slovenia [Uradni list RS], Nos. 22/01, 35/06, 75/08, 97/10, 46/12, 55/13, 38/16, 13/17, 13/18 and 58/20) and paragraph two of Article 101 of the International Protection Act (Official Gazette of the Republic of Slovenia [Uradni list RS], No. 16/17 – official consolidated version), the student residences of higher education centres in Ljubljana and Maribor hereby publish this

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

for subsidised accommodation for higher education programme students with the status of persons under international protection for the academic year 2021/2022

Content of the Call for Applications

- I. Conditions to be met by a student with the status of a person under international protection in order to be granted subsidised accommodation
- II. Granting subsidies
- III. Application for admission
- IV. Informing students
- V. Estimated number of accommodation vacancies for students with the status of a person under international protection at individual higher education centres
- VI. Addresses of Student Residence Offices

I. CONDITIONS TO BE MET BY STUDENTS WITH THE STATUS OF A PERSON UNDER INTERNATIONAL PROTECTION IN ORDER TO BE GRANTED SUBSIDISED ACCOMMODATION

Students shall meet the following general conditions:

- they have the status of a person under international protection;
- they have the status of a student and study in accordance with study programmes provided as full-time study or part-time study programmes, except for distance learning;
- they are not employed persons or registered sole proprietors; they are not registered in the records of unemployed persons with the competent authority and are not managers of companies or directors of private institutes; they are not recipients of pensions, other than recipients of a survivor's pension.

II. GRANTING SUBSIDIES

Subsidies for accommodation in residence halls shall be granted to students for the duration of one first-cycle study programme, one second-cycle study programme and one third-cycle study programme. If a student has student status pursuant to indent two of paragraph one of Article 66 or Article 70 of the Higher Education Act (Official Gazette of the Republic of Slovenia [Uradni list RS] Nos 32/12 – official consolidated version, 40/12 – ZUJF, 57/12 – ZPCP-2D, 109/12, 85/14, 75/16, 61/17 – ZUPŠ, 65/17, 175/20 – ZIUOPDVE and 57/21 – odl. US) or under another law during a study programme referred to in the preceding sentence or after its completion, the subsidy shall also be granted for this period.

If a student is enrolled in multiple parallel study programmes, only the duration of the study programme of enrolment at the time the subsidy commenced shall be taken into consideration. If a student changes his or her study programme, the duration of the study programme of enrolment in the individual academic year with respect to which he or she applied for subsidised accommodation shall be taken into consideration, whereas the duration of the subsidised accommodation prior to changing the study programme shall be deemed as the time of subsidised accommodation granted on the basis of the duration of the study programme referred to in the first sentence of the preceding paragraph of this Section.

The period of subsidised accommodation shall be shortened proportionally according to the academic year in which the student was first granted the subsidy.

A subsidy for accommodation shall be granted for accommodation at the location where the study programme is carried out (the premises or separate unit of a higher education institution) provided there are vacancies for the admission or extension of accommodation in accordance with Section V hereof.

III. APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

III.A) Deadline for the submission of applications

Students with the status of a person under international protection who seek subsidised accommodation in a public higher education student residence or a secondary school student residence shall submit an application for admission.

Students shall submit their application in person or by registered mail using the form "Application for admission or extension to subsidised accommodation for students with the status of a person under international protection for the academic year 2021/2022". Students may submit such application at any time during the academic year. Each student may submit only one application.

III.B) Supporting documents verifying that the general conditions and criteria for subsidised accommodation are met

The following mandatory supporting documents shall be enclosed with the application:

- proof of having the status of a person under international protection;
- proof that the applicant's child has the status of a person under international protection if the student would like to live together with his or her child;
- a certificate issued by the competent authority declaring that a disabled student is entitled to an assistant if the disabled student would like to be accommodated with the assistant.

For the purpose of the procedure, the Student Residence Office shall obtain the following on its own motion:

- data from the eVŠ records of students and graduates on the status of the student for the academic year 2021/2022.

IV. APPLICATION FOR EXTENSION

IV.A) Deadline for the submission of applications

Applications for extension shall be submitted by students with the status of a person under international protection who resided in a public higher education student residence or a secondary school student residence in the academic year 2020/2021 and provided:

- they concluded a first- or second-cycle study programme or integrated master's study programme in the academic year 2020/2021 and will enrol in a second- or third-cycle study programme (applicable to students concluding their study programme after the application submission deadline);
- they have not moved out of a public student residence or a secondary school student residence;
- their right to subsidised accommodation has not terminated due to noncompliance with the conditions under this Call for Applications specified in I. Conditions to be met by students with the status of a person under international protection in order to be granted subsidised accommodation or pursuant to paragraph six of Article 12 of the Rules on subsidised student accommodation.

Students shall submit their applications for extension in person or by registered mail using the form "Application for admission and extension of subsidised accommodation for students with the status of a person under international protection for the academic year 2021/2022". Students shall submit the aforementioned application by 16 August 2021. Each student may submit only one application.

IV.B) Supporting documents verifying that the general conditions and criteria for subsidised accommodation are met

Students shall enclose the following mandatory supporting documents with their application:

- proof of having the status of a person under international protection;
- proof that the applicant's child has the status of a person under international protection if the student would like to live together with his or her child;
- a certificate issued by the competent authority declaring that a disabled student is entitled to an assistant if the disabled student would like to be accommodated with the assistant.

For the purpose of the procedure, the Student Residence Office shall obtain the following on its own motion:

- data from the eVŠ records of students and graduates on the status of the student for the academic year 2021/2022.

V. INFORMING STUDENTS

Student Residence Offices shall issue a decision on compliance with the conditions for subsidised accommodation for students with the status of a person under international protection as referred to in Section III.A) hereof within one month of the submission of the application. Upon the finality of the above-mentioned decision, students shall be invited to move into the public or private secondary school residence or higher education student residence. In the event of the extension of subsidised accommodation, the envisaged date of issuance of a decision by Student Residence Offices shall be by 15 October 2021.
